

Hello Gardeners

Some bees hibernate in hollow stems, and some of us are very tiny!

If you need to tidy away your hollow stems, please leave them in a pile at the back of the garden, so we can escape the following Spring.

Thank you!

